SINGLES. Jumping three spots to sneak right past P!nk is Kings Of Leon with Sex On Fire nabbing the No.1 spot and leaving So What at No.2 this week. Meanwhile outside of the Top 10, T.I.'s Whatever You Like is up five places to No.14 and right behind him is Kings Of Leon with Use Somebody at No.15 up from No.24. Snow Patrol's Take Back The City strolls up fifteen places to sit at No.33 and lastly, Kevin Rudolf makes a break to No.57 with Let It Rock, which moves up twenty-five places this week.

No.27 FALL FOR YOU – Secondhand Serenade. Secondhand Serenade sounds like a great band name, but it is actually the name of Californian, John Vesely's solo project. The vocalist, guitarist and songwriter started off in the music world as a bass guitarist. Later he picked up an acoustic guitar and began writing songs, when he met his wife who wanted Vesely to serenade her. This is how the name Secondhand Serenade came about as it refers to the "serenades" Vesely has sung to his wife and listeners around the globe are merely hearing the songs "second-hand". This is his debut to the ARIA Singles Chart.

No.48 LIVE YOUR LIFE – T.I. Feat. Rihanna. This is the follow up single from T.I. to Whatever You Like, which is sitting at a new peak of No.14 this week. Both tracks are taken from the album Paper Trail (No.16 Oct. '08). Live Your Life contains snippets of O-Zone's Dragostea Din Tei and on the album version there is a dedication from T.I. to all the soldiers over in Iraq. This is T.I.'s third Top100 single alongside Why You Wanna (No.49 Aug. '06).

No.87 TAME IMPALA – Tame Impala. This trio from Perth consists of Jay Watson (drums / vocals), Kevin Parker (guitar / vocals) and Dominic Simper (bass). Parker and Simper have been mates since high school and Watson joined them just over a year ago. The band cites The Doors, The Mamas & The Papas and Creedence Clearwater Revival amongst others as influences. The Tame Impala EP features five hypnotic rock tunes – Desire Be, Desire Go, Slide Through My Fingers, Half Full Glass Of Wine, 41 Mosquitoes Flying In Formation and Skeleton Tiger. This is their debut to the ARIA Singles Chart.

ALBUMS. The Kings Of Leon and Metallica stand-off continues for yet another week as Only By The Night sits at No.1 and Death Magnetic stays at No.2. Further down the chart we have a pile of re-entries starting at No.67 with Kanye West's Graduation, Madonna's Hard Candy at No.69 then three in a row quickly follow that; 20,000 Watt RSL – The Midnight Oil Collection is at No.76, No.77 is the Kaiser Chiefs Your Trully, Angry Mob and Rearviewmirror by Pearl Jam is at No.78.

No.4 WATCH ME DISAPPEAR – Augie March. This Australian band had an international approach to recording this latest album, with some of the recording happening in Melbourne, some in Sydney, some in Auckland at Neil Finn's studio and the remainder in Los Angeles. Augie March is made up of Melbournians Glenn Richards, David Williams, Edmondo Ammendola, Kiernan Box and Adam Donovan. Watch Me Disappear has hit No.1 in the Australian albums chart this week. Their first album to chart was Strange Bird which hit No.34 in October 2002 which was followed by the platinum accredited Moo, You Bloody Choir which peaked at No.10 in March 2006.

No.13 A LITTLE BIT LONGER – Jonas Brothers. As the Jonas Brothers singles have been dotted up and down the singles chart over the last few months, it's time for them to make an appearance to the albums chart. This latest album comes off the success of The Camp Rock Soundtrack (No.13 Oct. '08), the latest Disney 'made-for-tv' movie that starred the Jonas Brothers alongside new-comer Demi Lovato. A Little Bit Longer features self-written tracks that mirror their current lives – there are songs that are about the fake people that seem to populate the music industry, a song about Nick's struggle with diabetes and as always songs about lost love. Their last album, Jonas Brothers, reached No.43 in April 2008.

No.33 PERFECT SYMMETRY – Keane. Perfect Symmetry has gone straight to No.1 in the UK, which has made it their third No.1 album – not too shabby when they've only released three albums! Keane is made up of Tim Rice-Oxley (piano), Tom Chaplin (vocals and guitars) and Richard Hughes (drums), who were all originally friends from Sussex, UK. All of their albums have charted well within the top 50, their first album Hopes And Fears hit No.42 in September 2004 and their last album Under The Iron Sea reached No.16 in June 2006.

No.45 TOOLS FOR SURVIVAL – Jackson Jackson. Jackson Jackson is a partnership that started between Harry Angus of The Cat Empire and Jan Skubiszewski, a Hip Hop producer and film composer. The group has grown to now include Ollie McGill (keyboards), Ryan Monro (basses and guitar) and Will Hull-Brown (drums). For this album they have also had a few friends lending their musical abilities with sitarist Kumar Shome and Brazilian percussionist Nehda Rahmani. This is their first entry into the albums chart, though their first album was The Fire Is On The Bird.

No.50 BACK AGAIN... NO MATTER WHAT – Boyzone. Following the recent trend of fellow boy bands New Kids On The Block and Take That, Boyzone are busting out the moves and testing out the vocal chords once again! This album is a best of collection of their hits from 1994-1999, as well as a few new songs – the first time the boys had been back together in a studio in over nine years. Now a little older and wiser, Boyzone have a massive tour planned throughout the UK, that has them showing off their newly toned bodies. Boyzone is now made up of Ronan Keating, Stephen Gately, Mikey Graham, Shane Lynch and Keith Duffy who are all now in their early to mid-thirties. Their last album release was their highest charting album - By Request (No.3 Sep. '99) accredited platinum, which in chart peak order was followed by the gold accredited Where We Belong (No.31 Mar. '99), then Said And Done (No.49 Apr. '96) and last but not least A Different Beat (No.74 Feb. '97).

No.61 NO.1'S & NO.2'S – Tex Perkins & His Ladyboyz. This album is actually a covers album – though instead of remaining faithful to the original recordings, Perkins & His Ladyboyz have given the tracks their own unique spin. Included on this album is I'm Not In Love, Hungry Eyes, We've Got Tonight and Hold The Line. The Ladyboyz is made up of Charlie Owen, James Cruickshank, Joel Silbersher, Pat Bourke and Gus Agars. There are a few special guests on this album including Jimmy Barnes, Nic Cester, Suze Demarchi and Mahalia Barnes.

No.68 LITTLE HONEY – Lucinda Williams. With this album, Williams has got her first No.1 as it hits the prime position in the country charts this week. This now makes it her fourth top 5 country charting album with Car Wheels On A Gravel Road (No.69 Aug. '98) hitting No.5, Essence (No.59 Jun. '01) reaching No.2 and her last album West (No.53 Feb. '07) which hit No.5. Her latest album has Elvis Costello, Susanna Hoffs, Matthew Sweet and Charlie Louvin lending their expertise. This album was written out of a place of grief and turmoil for Williams as her mother has recently passed away, and her relationship with her partner broke up. However, there is some joy to this project as she is now in a relationship with the producer of this album, Tom Overby. Williams has also released World Without Tears (No.80 Apr. '03) which arrived at No.32 in the country charts.

No.73 GOSSIP IN THE GRAIN – Ray LaMontagne. LaMontagne is a singer-songwriter from America, who had a musician as a father, but while growing up he didn't know him, and also had no interest in music. Upon graduating, he was working in a shoe factory and heard the song Treetop Flyer by Stephen Stills, and decided that he wanted a career change! The first album, Trouble, released here failed to chart, and this is his debut to the ARIA charts! On this album, LaMontagne played guitar, Rhodes piano and sang, Ethan Johns doubled up as a producer and drummer, Jennifer Condos played bass, Eric Heywood played guitar and Leona Naess contributed backing vocals.

No.74 LONG NOW – Children Collide. We have an Aussie album sliding into the No.74 spot this week. Children Collide are originally from Melbourne and is comprised of: Johnny Mackay (vocals, guitar), Heath Crawley (bass) and Ryan Caesar (drums). Their recent popularity has been aided by the support slots they've been playing – they have been seen warming up the crowd for The Living End and The Hoodoo Gurus. Alongside this album release is an Australian tour due to kick off in their hometown in November.

No.80 STAY TRUE – Deez Nuts. This is Deez Nuts debut to the ARIA Albums chart. Behind the stage name Deez Nuts is JJ Peters who used to be the drummer for the band I Killed The Prom Queen. It's a solo project, and on this album Peters played the drums, guitar bass and sang! Deez Nuts is currently on tour in the middle of an extensive trip around the UK. This is actually his second album, the first was the EP Rep Your Hood.
